5. System Domain

    We will use NodeJs, ExpressJs for backend work, MySQL for database management and fast query results, EJS for writing effective javascript code and tailwind/bootstrap as a CSS framework.

6. Application Domain

    The utilities college management applications are huge, it could be used by any elderly teacher or a professor and for different areas of field it could provide the professors with different tools and technologies to equip professors with the best possible way and more importantly easy-to-use and comfortable way of managing software.

7. Expected Outcome

    A web application which is ready to use for college professors